DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1, 5, 7, 9, 17, 29, 30, 48-58, and 60-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding all independent claims, The preamble of all independent claims recite a method of forming a golf ball or a portion thereof, wherein the steps carried out only result in making a golf ball portion, not a golf ball. Claims 5, 7, 9, and 64 claim forming a cover wherein the cover has an inner and outer cover but it is unclear if the material constitutes both cover layers or only one. Based on the above it is not clear whether the method is used to make a golf ball and only appears to only make a portion of the golf ball. Further, claim 7 recites if present in addition to reciting "the optional intermediate layer". "The optional intermediate layer" creates antecedent issue being that it was originally introduced "optionally at least one intermediate layer.

It is suggested that claim 1 and 63 either incorporate language to recite the preamble being just a golf ball, the preamble to recite just a golf ball portion, or a limitation reciting that a center is placed in the mold before the step of providing the first and second reactable components.

The language "and the cover disposed about the center and the optional intermediate layer, if present" should be removed from claim 7 providing that the preamble recites "a golf ball".

Claims 29, 30, and 61 should read in the preamble "A method of forming a golf ball portion"

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 5, 7, 9, 17, 29, 30, 48-58, and 60-65 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
